The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

24 months on Count 1 of the First Superseding Indictment.

Upon release from imprisonment defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of five years under the following terms and conditions:

1. Defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U.S. Probation and General Order 05-02, including but not limited to the condition that defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.
2. Defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. Defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment. Thereafter, defendant shall submit to periodic drug testing as directed by the probation officer not to exceed eight tests per month.
3. Defendant may not associate with anyone known to him to be a member of or a participant in the criminal activities of the Grape Street Crips gang, with the exception of defendant's family members if any.

6. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from himself.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

Pursuant to Guideline Section 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), the Court shall impose a sentence sufficient, but not greater than necessary, to comply with the purposes set forth in paragraph (2) of this subsection. The Court, in determining the particular sentence to be imposed, shall consider --

1. The nature and circumstances of the offense and the history and characteristics of the defendant;
2. The need for the sentence imposed --
 - a. To reflect the seriousness of the offense; to promote respect for the law, and to provide just punishment for the offense;
 - b. To afford adequate deterrence to criminal conduct;
 - c. To protect the public from further crimes of the defendant; and
 - d. To provide the defendant with needed correctional treatment in the most effective manner.
3. The kinds of sentences available;
4. The guideline sentencing range;
5. The need to avoid unwarranted sentence disparities among defendants with similar records who have been found guilty of similar conduct.

The Court recommends defendant to be housed in a Southern California facility.

The Court recommends defendant to participate in any available 500– hour RDAP.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed.
